LINCOLN DAY AT HIS BIRTHPLACE

Kentucky Farm Scene of Celebration Today.

PRESIDENT DELIVERS ADDRESS

Extols Career of Great Liberator in Speech at Laying of Cornerstone of the Lincoln Memorial—Distinguished Men Present—Escort of Former Wearers of Blue and Gray For Mr. Roosevelt—Exercises Under Auspices of the Lincoln Farm Association.

Hodgenville, Ky., Feb. 12.—At America's Bethlehem, near this town, where her savior was born 100 years ago, the nation paid tribute today to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. Eloquent speakers extolled his fame, and on the spot where stands the cabin in which he first saw the light the cornerstone of the Lincoln memorial was laid. The principal figure at the laying of the cornerstone was President Roosevelt, who delivered the main address.

The services at the Lincoln farm were held under the auspices of the Lincoln Farm association, which has labored long and assiduously in the effort, now crowned with success, to mark worthily the scene of Lincoln's birth. The association was represented by its president, former Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri; its indefatigable secretary, Richard Lloyd Jones, who had active charge of the arrangements for today's ceremonies, and other officers and members.

Man Who Saved Cabin Present.

A prominent figure in the crowd of distinguished men at the ceremonies was Robert J. Collier of New York, to whom the country owes the preservation of the cabin in which the great liberator was born. In 1860 the cabin was removed from its original site to another a mile and a half distant, near Davenport. There it served as a spring house until the early eighties, when it was bought by an enterprising showman and carted around the country to serve as an attraction at world's fairs and elsewhere. From this ignominious fate it was rescued by Mr. Collier. The outgrowth of his efforts to preserve it as a perpetual memorial for the nation was the Lincoln Farm association, whose labors will take concrete form in the marble memorial which will be built around and over the shack in which Lincoln was born.

Acting as escort for President Roosevelt and lending a very picturesque touch to the occasion were the members of the Louisville post of the Grand Army of the Republic and the members of the Louisville camp of the United Confederate Veterans. The mingling of the blue and the gray on this occasion elicited from President Roosevelt many expressions of delight.

The Men Who Spoke.

The exercises at the Lincoln farm began at noon. The opening address was delivered by ex-Governor Folk who spoke on "The Lincoln Farm Association." He was followed by Governor Willson, whose theme was "Lincoln's Mother State." Then came Presented by the phrase that is often heard—"making the coast too mighty unhealthy for Japs to live on it."

When people are living from day to day with this rancorous feeling deep down in their hearts it wants only some trifling incident to occur that will in a moment transform it into overt action that would have far-reaching and very deplorable consequences. It is not the business of the present writer to offer theoretical views as to the situation or to write denunciations of the wage earners of the Pacific coast. This is a simple chronicle of facts as they exist—facts which have to be looked in the face, facts that every man familiar with the coast must admit unless his information is obtained solely in club smoking rooms, expensive hotels or the offices and private homes of leading merchants, shipowners and employers of labor. There is a large and highly respectable and influential class of people who come little in contact with the Japanese except in the capacity of servants, in which walk of life they are admirable. This class of people are largely tolerant of the little brown men and in many cases enthusiastic about them. This enthusiasm, injudiciously displayed, is often the means of adding fuel to the existing fires of hatred.

In a large hotel a German waiter brought a new revolver to the writer's bedroom to ask his opinion as to its merits. It was a cheap but deadly little gun, obtained from a firm in the cities the sympathies of the police are with the people against the Japanese.

News as it reaches the east comes mainly from the large cities, but it is not in these, with the exception of Vancouver, that the anti-Japanese feeling is strongest. There is little of it to be discovered in Los Angeles. There is more in San Francisco, but it is confined in a measure to certain parts of the city and to certain classes. A study of the situation, however, in places like Stockton, San Jose, Sacramento, Merced, Fresno, and so on, is something of a revelation. In these localities the anti-Japanese attitude has been taken up by a different class of people, principally the younger generation who want the old association of vigilantes resurrected.

There are many reasons why British Columbia should feel the Japanese invasion more than the American states on the Pacific coast. First, the Japs enter the Canadian province as an ally of Great Britain with more assurance and swagger than he ventures to put on in landing on United States soil; second, the British Columbia of today dates practically, as regards its prosperity, from the time of the mining boom in the Kootenays, ten or twelve years ago. Attention was then drawn to British Columbia as a desirable field for British emigration in a way that had never happened before. Crowds of well to do Britishers have flocked into the province since the beginning of the present century, and it is these very desirable settlers who are most bitterly opposed to the Japanese. Take fruit growing, for instance. Unlike the Chinaman, the Jap does not propose to work as a wage earner. He proposes to be a fruit grower on his own account and employ other labor, and, while that is no doubt praiseworthy, his Canadian neighbor does not like it a little bit. He proposes to go into salmon canning, not as a laborer, but as a canner on a large scale, for which he can get ample backing from capitalists in his own country. He offers to bring all the money that is necessary and enough of his own countrymen to do all the work, and the white man does not take kindly to the project.

After a careful survey of the whole North American Pacific coast there is little doubt in the mind of the present writer that in a settlement of the Japanese immigration difficulty it is the Canadian subjects of King Edward who are likely to give most trouble.

ON A MODERN WARSHIP.

The Feelings of a Commander as Described by Himself.

How the commander of a modern big American battleship can feel is disclosed in the following, taken from a letter written by such an officer:

"There are more than 900 men on this ship, and on the theory that an official of the government is a servant of the people I am the servant of these 900 men and am bound to see that they are kept in food and clothing and baseball bats and abundantly supplied with occupation. Perhaps I should feel more independent if I didn't have to listen respectfully to the orderly every time he comes in and makes one of his infinitely numerous reports and put men in jail when I don't want to.

"Some of these 900 men look more dignified and independent than I feel. I wonder whether I look dignified and independent. I suppose I ought to do so, for to swing a steel mass 504 feet long successfully around like monsters and to make 15,000 tons writhe around the corners of narrow channels is something of an art, after all, and one not possessed by many of the inhabitants of the globe.

"With all that swinging of steel monsters around there go the responsibility and the knowledge that if the ship runs aground the whole civilized world will be acquainted with its inside of twenty-four hours."

DEADLY HORNETS.

The Ones That Buzzed About the Young Soldier's Ears.

A great general was taking his regiment into action. He sent forward a detail of men to make gaps in a rail fence to avoid the heavy loss sure to result if the whole body of men paused to tear it down.

The coolest and finest man in the detail was a young soldier who had never been under fire before. When he began pulling down the fence he fancied he had disturbed a nest of hornets, as he thought he heard them singing fiercely about his ears. But the lad was not going to run from hornets when there was more serious business ahead.

Ignoring the angry insects, he opened the fence and rejoined the regiment without being stung.

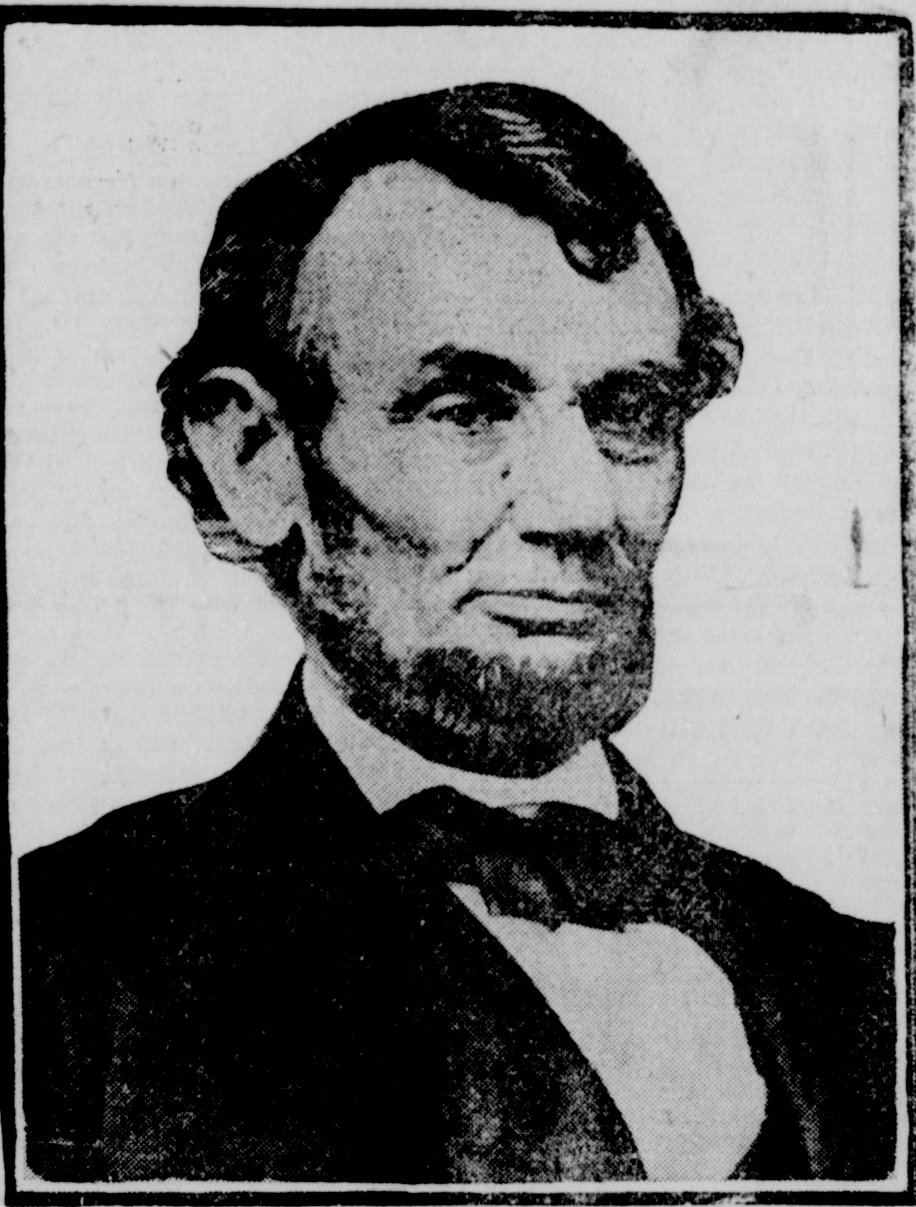

In a day or two he was surprised to hear that he was to be promoted.

"But," he said modestly, "I don't think I deserve promotion over the others."

"My boy," replied the general, "I saw you pull down that fence. You were the coolest man under fire I ever saw."

The man gasped, stared and turned pale.

"What?" he exclaimed, regardless of grammar. "Was them wasps bullets?"

ident Roosevelt, whose "Lincoln Centennial Address" was received with earnest attention and at its close with great applause. The president's successor as orator was Secretary Wright, who spoke for "The Confederate Veteran." Last on the list of speakers was General James Grant Wilson, the well known writer and orator, who spoke for "The Federal Veteran." The laying of the cornerstone followed the addresses.

President Roosevelt spoke as follows: We have met here to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the birth of one of the two greatest Americans; of one of the two or three greatest men of the nineteenth century; of one of the greatest men in the world's history. This rail splitter, this boy who passed his ungainly youth in the dire poverty of the poorest of the frontier folk, whose rise was by weary and painful labor, lived to lead his people through the burning flames of a struggle from which the nation emerged, purified as by fire, born anew to a loftier life. After long years of iron effort and of failure that came more often than victory, he at last rose to the leadership of the republic at the moment when that leadership had become the stupendous world task of the time. He grew to know employers of labor are much to blame. They are never tired of extolling the virtues of the little brown man and holding him up as a model for imitation. Of course they have not got to work alongside him and only know him in his invariably deferential attitude toward his employer and paymaster. People who recollect their school days will remember how very cordially hated was the model boy of the class, who was always praised and held up for imitation. The Pacific coast wage earner has much the same sort of feeling about the Japanese, only, being a grown man instead of a schoolboy, he has it worse, and, believing that he is master of the situation, he means to get rid of the brown invader, by constitutional means, if possible, but, failing these, by other less desirable methods which are coveast by mail order. Asked as to his motive in purchasing the weapon, the German waiter cheerfully answered, "To shoot Japs when we drive them out." He added that many men of his class were buying guns.

Inquiry among the new and second hand dealers in firearms in the coast cities elicited the fact that sales during last year had been unprecedentedly large, and particularly was this the case in British Columbia. There are now no British soldiers in Canada. The garrison at Esquimalt is manned by men of the Canadian permanent force. Esquimalt is about four miles from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, and the men in garrison are depended upon to quell any anti-Japanese or other riot that may break out.

The men spend much of their time in Victoria, fraternizing with the people there, and in the event of an anti-Japanese riot they could not be depended upon to take an active part against their white fellow subjects, a fact which is perfectly well known to their officers and to the department of militia at Ottawa. TO FINISH THE STATE PRISON

House Passes Measure Appropriating $2,250,000.

IN ORDER TO RUSH THE WORK

Certificates of Indebtedness Will Be Issued—Bill Provides for an Annual Tax Levy of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand for Each of the Next Ten Years—Slaughter House Measure Introduced.

St. Paul, Feb. 12.—The house passed the bill appropriating $2,250,000 for the completion of the new state prison at Stillwater. The bill provides for an annual tax levy of $225,000 for each of the next ten years.

In order that the board of control may complete the building of the prison at once, instead of waiting for this tax levy to come in, it is authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness. This is to provide for the completion of the prison on the site acquired at Oak Park, according to plans approved by the board of control, including enclosure walls and administration buildings, and to equip the prison with the requisite and necessary facilities for carrying on the making of twine and farm machinery as authorized by law so that the prisoners may have humane, advantageous and profitable employment.

The house also passed Mr. Spooner's bill which was recommended in the committee of the whole Wednesday, authorizing the board of control to use the revolving fund, which now amounts to $1,300,000, in the manufacture of farm machinery.

The bill drawn up by the Ramsey delegation in the house to prevent the establishment of any slaughter house near the state university or farm school, was introduced by Alvin Rowe, chairman of the delegation.

The bill prohibits the location or operation of any slaughter house, packing house or similar industries within five miles of the state university or any of its colleges, or within five miles of the state fair grounds.

Protects Public Baths.

It also prohibits the discharge of sewage from any such plant of from any stockyards into the waters or flowing streams above and within five miles of any city of over 10,000 inhabitants or above and within five miles of any city having free public baths.

The first real fight over the passage of a bill in the senate this season occurred in the afternoon. Senator F. H. Peterson of Moorhead was the victor, carrying through his amended bill relating to electric headlights despite the repeated efforts of Senator Frank Clague of Lamberton to further amend the bill.

The railroad committee after a hearing before high officials of the roads and officers of various associations of railway men reported the bill for passage, with slight amendments agreed to by both parties. The bill provides that locomotives running on main lines at night shall have headlights of 1,500 candle power. Machines for a light of this candle power are made by only one firm.

Counties may establish tuberculosis sanatoria if a bill introduced by J. A. Gates of Kenyon should pass. It permits any county to spend $20,000 for this purpose and also permits two or more counties to combine for this purpose. Each institution is to be governed by a board of three physicians.

Deputy State Health Officials.

In a bill by J. A. Wescott of Dakota county deputy state health officials are provided for every county in the state. They are to be appointed by the board after a competitive examination in hygiene and sanitation.

Like a beam of sunlight through the cloud of plans for additional agricultural education came the testimony concerning a plan of rural agricultural education in operation in McIntosh, Polk county.

Professor A. M. Dunton, principal of the high school at McIntosh, has worked up a system of co-operation between the farmers of the townships modeled on the Wisconsin idea, which seems to contain the germ of a plan which may be worked out all over the state. Professor Dunton told the finance committee of the senate what he had been doing, and he was requested to submit his ideas to the committee which is considering the agricultural school proposition.

Senator Nelson introduced State Auditor S. G. Iverson's bill creating a new land department. The bill provides for a state land commissioner, whose salary shall be $5,000, and who is to be elected by the people and to serve for four years. He will have an assistant commissioner, with a salary of $3,000. The bill also provides for a bureau of state lands to act as an advisory board to the commissioner.

Both the house and senate adjourned until Monday at 2 p. m., after passing resolutions in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of Lincoln's birth.

If the senate concurs, the legislature will end its session this year on April 6, two weeks earlier than usual. The house adopted the concurrent resolution offered by John Saugstad of Climax fixing the date. The last day for introducing bills is March 16.

Repeated whistling from the water plant this morning caused some appre-

the whistles was that a gasket had blown out in one of the main steam

tendent, whom they were unable to reach by telephone. The accident compelled the shutting down of the plant

TO KILL JOHNSON GRASS.

Oklahoma Man Invents Machine to Remove Roots From Ground.

After years spent by farmers and men interested in agriculture in an effort to discover a way to destroy the well known Johnson grass, Bert G.
Patterson of Addington, Okla., claims to have solved the mystery. The solution, according to Patterson, is a machine which will remove the roots
from the ground so that the infested grass will forever be freed from the grass pest, which has discouraged
many an otherwise successful farmer.

The new invention, he says, extracts
the roots and delivers them as cleanly
as newly dug potatoes, to be fed to hogs or cattle, raked and burned or left to rot and fertilize the soil, the worth of which they once threatened to destroy.

The One Question.
The 4th of March draws near once
more.
Again from sea to sea
We hear the question o'er and o'er,
"What will the climate be?"

No more we list with eager ears
When statesmen disagree.
One phrase reflects all hopes and fears—
"What will the climate be?"

For trade well taxed or free.
We merely ask the weather man,
"What will the climate be?"

HONEST QUALITY FLOUR
ROMAN FLOUR
MADE BY
BRAINERD MILLING CO.

An Obliging Caller.

When M. Clemenceau was in the French chamber of deputies he became for some reason the idol of the workman, but his popularity, according to the course of nature, brought its penalties. He was besieged by all sorts of people, who came merely to ask questions, and sometimes they were questions of the most trivial sort.

He was originally a doctor and used to give advice for nothing at certain hours of the day. One morning a workman entered his room, and Clemenceau said without looking up
from his writing:
"Take off your coat and shirt. I'll attend to you directly."

Three minutes later he found the man had stripped to the waist.

"There is nothing the matter with you," said the doctor when he had made an examination.

"I know there isn't," returned the man.

"Then what did you come for?"

"To consult you on a political question."

"But what did you strip for?"

"I thought you wanted an illustration of the emaciated body of the man who lives by the sweat of his brow."

The political question remained unanswered. M. Clemenceau was too exasperated to do more than tell the man
to dress and go home.

Why Our Railroads Are Narrow Gauge.

Why are all railroads built on the standard gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches? The makers of the first locomotives thought only of putting their machines upon the tramways already in existence, and from that followed a very interesting and curious result. These tram lines naturally had exactly the width prescribed by the strength of one horse. By mere inertia the horse cart gauge established itself in the world, and everywhere the train is dwarfed to a scale
that limits alike its comfort, power and speed. Because there is so much capital engaged and because of the dead power of custom it is doubtful if there will ever be any change in this gauge. Still, it might be worse. If the biggest horses had been Shetland ponies
our railway carriages now would only be wide enough to hold two persons side by side and would have a maximum speed of twenty miles an hour. There is hardly a reason aside from this antiquated horse why the railway coach should not be nine or ten feet wide—that is, the width of the smallest room in which people can live in comfort and furnished with all the equipment of comfortable chambers.—Atlantic.

Eye Strain Headache

Toledo, Ohio, lady tells how headaches disappeared with the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Women who use their eyes much for reading or fine needlework are sure to find eyestrain and nervous, sick headaches among the first symptoms when the nervous system gets run down.

As a positive cure for headaches, not mere relief but cure, Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills stand without a rival because they get at the cause of the trouble and build up the nervous system to health and strength.

Mrs. K. Kramer, 31 Summit St., Toledo, Ohio, states: "My trouble was good, hard,
nervous, sick headaches and neuralgia of the eyes, all due to a run-down system. I heard of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and obtained splendid results from their use. The headaches and neuralgia disappeared when my system was built up; the nerves are steady and my whole system wonderfully benefited."

Repeated whistling from the water plant this morning caused some apprehension in some quarters that there might be a serious fire. The cause of the whistles was that a gasket had blown out in one of the main steam pipes and the engineers were endeavoring to locate Mr. Wright, the superintendent, whom they were unable to reach by telephone. The accident compelled the shutting down of the plant for a short time but the pressure was on again within an hour or so.

TO KILL JOHNSON GRASS.

Oklahoma Man Invents Machine to Remove Roots From Ground.

After years spent by farmers and men interested in agriculture in an effort to discover a way to destroy the well known Johnson grass, Bert G. Patterson of Addington, Okla., claims to have solved the mystery. The solution, according to Patterson, is a machine which will remove the roots from the ground so that the infested section will forever be freed from the grass pest, which has discouraged many an otherwise successful farmer. The new invention, he says, extracts the roots and delivers them as cleanly as newly dug potatoes, to be fed to hogs or cattle, raked and burned or left to rot and fertilize the soil, the worth of which they once threatened to destroy.

ROMAN FLOUR
MADE BY
BRainerd MILLING CO.

An Obliging Caller.

When M. Clemenceau was in the French chamber of deputies he became for some reason the idol of the workingman, but his popularity, according to the course of nature, brought its penalties. He was besieged by all sorts of people, who came merely to ask questions, and sometimes they were questions of the most trivial sort.

He was originally a doctor and used to give advice for nothing at certain hours of the day. One morning a workingman entered his room, and Clemenceau said without looking up from his writing:

"Take off your coat and shirt. I'll attend to you directly."

Three minutes later he found the man had stripped to the waist.

"There is nothing the matter with you," said the doctor when he had made an examination.

"I know there isn't," returned the man.

"Then what did you come for?"

"To consult you on a political question."

"But what did you strip for?"

"I thought you wanted an illustration of the emaciated body of the man who lives by the sweat of his brow."

The political question remained unanswered. M. Clemenceau was too exasperated to do more than tell the man to dress and go home.

Why Our Railroads Are Narrow Gauge.

Why are all railroads built on the standard gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches? The makers of the first locomotives thought only of putting their machines upon the tramways already in existence, and from that followed a very interesting and curious result. These tram lines naturally had exactly the width prescribed by the strength of one horse. By mere inertia the horse cart gauge established itself in the world, and everywhere the train is dwarfed to a scale that limits alike its comfort, power and speed. Because there is so much capital engaged and because of the dead power of custom it is doubtful if there will ever be any change in this gauge. Still, it might be worse. If the biggest horses had been Shetland ponies our railway carriages now would only be wide enough to hold two persons side by side and would have a maximum speed of twenty miles an hour. There is hardly a reason aside from this antiquated horse why the railway coach should not be nine or ten feet wide—that is, the width of the smallest room in which people can live in comfort and furnished with all the equipment of comfortable chambers.—Atlantic.

Eye Strain Headache

Tellico, Ohio, lady tells how headaches disappeared with the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Women who use their eyes much for reading or fine needlework are sure to find eye-strain and nervous, sick headaches among the first symptoms when the nervous system gets run down.

As a positive cure for headaches, not mere relief but cure, Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills stand without a rival because they get at the cause of the trouble and build up the nervous system to health and strength.

Mrs. K. Kramer, 31 Summit St., Toledo, Ohio, states: "My trouble was good, hard, nervous, sick headaches and neuralgia of the eyes, all due to a run-down system. I heard of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and obtained splendid results from their use. The headaches and neuralgia disappeared when my system was built up; the nerves are steady and my whole system wonderfully benefited."

INDICATIVE OF
BETTER BUSINESS

Minnesota & International Brought
in Several Trains of Lumber, Etc., Last Night

IT LOOKS VERY ENCOURAGING
Increase in Traffic in That Line
Would Indicate Increase in
Lumber Demand

Taken together with the fact that there begins to be some traffic in logs,
which were a drug on the market early in the winter, the sudden activity of movements in that line on the Minnesota & International railroad is decidedly encouraging. During last night
about 120 cars of lumber, poles, posts,
pulp wood, etc., came in from the north. Another train of 45 cars was unable to get in within the 16 hours prescribed by law and will arrive late today. In view of the extreme quietness in this line for some months back this sudden activity is looked upon by men and others as indicative of a return to normal traffic along those lines.

TO SELL OVERFLOW LANDS
Congressman Lindbergh Introduces
Bill to Sell Land Condemned
by Government

Washington, Feb. 10.—Congressman Lindbergh today introduced a bill which authorizes the secretary of the interior
to offer for sale the lands in Cass, Crow Wing, Mille Lacs, Morrison and Hubbard counties in Minnesota, which have been condemned by the government for overflow land on account of reservoir dams and others that may be built.

There is a good deal of this land that does not overflow and the plan is to sell this, subject, of course, to the easement of the government on the overflow. The bill also includes the sale of islands of not more than ten acres. The land is not to be sold for less than $5 per acre.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Geo. Sargent was Pleasantly Surprised at His Home, 818 Third Street South Thursday Evening

One of the most pleasant surprises of the season was sprung on Geo. Sargent at his home Thursday night, Feb. 11,
the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday, when the degree team of Iola Council, No. 15, Degree of Pocahontas took possession of his home
during his absence at the Red Men's meeting. When he arrived home he was completely taken back to see the house filled with "squaws" and their husbands. The time was very pleasantly spent in playing 500 and other amusements, after which an elegant lunch was served, the guests doing ample justice to it. Mr. Sargent was presented with a handsome gold watch chain from the degree team as a token of their esteem for the interest he has taken in the council. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. George E.
Abbott and Mr. Sargent responded in a few but choice words telling his appreciation of the gift. The gentleman's head prize was won by W. M.
Sinclair while Geo. E. Abbott captured
the consolation prize. Mrs. Chas.
Beugnot won the ladies' prize which was a beautiful glass dish. The party broke up about 1:30 in the morning
when the guests departed for their respective homes after having spent a most pleasant evening.

SIMPLE RECIPE
CURES CATARRH

A Noted Authority Gives Advice
to Relieve and Prevent Catarrh

A FINE HOME PRESCRIPTION

Victims Should Make Some Up
and Try it as it Doesn't Cost Much

Here is a prescription which should be valued by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience
great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time
it should prevent an attack of catarrh
during the entire season.

Anyone can mix the following:
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. Get these ingredients from any pharmacist
whom you know handles only pure drugs.

This prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys
to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders
and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism
pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable, though simple, recipes come from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every reader who suffers from catarrh.

FOR INTERNATIONAL FALLS

Backus-Brooks Company is Having Logs Hauled to International Falls
to Mill to be Built There

J. F. Malone, of Minneapolis, was in Brainerd today on his way to St. Cloud from Northome. Mr. Malone is in the employ of the Backus-Brooks company
and has been at Northome superintending the taking of logs out of the lake
and loading them on cars for transportation to International Falls. Mr. Malone states that the Backus-Brooks Co. will erect a large saw mill at International Falls as soon as spring opens and the logs are being hauled so as to be in readiness for the new mill.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes,
and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. H. P. Dunn. mwf

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Majestic Stock Co

"Dick's Honeymoon," the delightful comedy in three acts, was given to a fair sized audience, by the Majestic Stock Co. last night, and those who witnessed the performance say that such a laughter provoking comedy as this has not been seen in Brainerd in several years. The light comedy work of Mr. Harlow, proves him to be a far-cure far above the average and we would suggest to the young manager-
actor that he keep in this line of work,
as it is his forte. The other members of the company did excellent work, especially Miss Claudia Korinek, in the part of Letty, and Miss Edwards was a delight as the dainty Suzanne. Mr.
Munsel made much of the part of the choleric and verbose old father. Mr.
Roy Easthagen as Dick's friend, shows that this young man has the making of a clever juvenile performer. Miss Raeno played the dual roles of Camille and Freda cleverly, and Mr. Bert Hartman did well as the duke. The comedy will be given for the balance of the week with a special matinee Saturday, and we can heartily endorse this comedy
and these people to the amusement loving public of Brainerd and those who miss seeing this comedy will miss a decided treat. Next Monday the company will open for three nights in a delightful musical comedy, "The Governor's Wife," an English comedy
adapted for the American stage by Mr.
Harlow. The prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents. Saturday matinee 10 cents.

C. R. Klugger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes:
"I was weak from kidney trouble
that I could hardly walk a hundred feet.
Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." H. P. Dunn. mwf

Prominent Business Men Speak of Gruesome Sight Left in Enforcement of Dog Regulations

"While every right minded person should commend the rigid enforcement of the dog killing regulations, there is room for criticism in the fact that the dogs are left lying for hours and sometimes for days where they were shot,
which is certainly a gruesome sight
and not fit for women and children."

THE DISPATCH has been informed by other parties that dead dogs are being hauled out beyond the ice house in East Brainerd, and dumped in the brush,
instead of being hauled to the dumping grounds.

How to Kill and Cook Possum.

Just how a possum ought to be killed
and cooked is told in the Atlanta Constitution, by an expert known far and wide in Georgia. He says:

"To kill a possum his head should be placed beneath a stick. Stand on the stick and pull the possum's tail until his neck is broken. A possum requires careful treatment, and to cook one to perfection a peculiar arrangement is necessary. A pan on legs should be provided with a hole in one end which can be plugged. Coals placed under the pan will slowly cook the possum,
and as the grease runs off from time to time. All the time the carcass should be basted with a sauce made of pepper and vinegar. In the meantime the potatoes should be boiled. When the possum is almost done the potatoes
should be packed in the pan around the possum, a little sugar sprinkled over them, and then the gravy which has been drawn off from the pan
should be poured on, after which possum and potatoes should be brovned to a turn."

FREAKS OF FOOD.

Queer Effects That Are a Puzzle to the Physician.

As regards drink, writes Dr. Beverly Robinson in the Medical Record, I have known a tumblerful of milk to bring on an attack of asthma with hives in an otherwise healthy child. When the milk was taken and a piece of bread eaten at the same time there was no asthma and no hives. I could explain this by saying that the bread helped break up curd and that stomachal digestion was not interfered with. But why and precisely in what manner and for what reason asthma and hives
were occasioned are certainly matters largely of thought and conjecture. I have known mushrooms in good condition and on repeated occasions to cause
most distressing oedema of the uvula and palate. Prior to these attacks the same individual had eaten mushrooms repeatedly with no bad or unpleasant effects at all and had thoroughly enjoyed them. I have known an individual in whom a single strawberry would give neuralgia of the teeth which lasted twelve to twenty-four hours. Again, prior to the attacks of neuralgia of the dental branches of the fifth nerve the same individual had eaten repeatedly and abundantly of strawberries
without pain, ache or unpleasant symptoms of any kind. In this case it seemed as though the only plausible
though not entirely satisfactory explanation was that with increasing years strawberries had become inimical to that patient.

STANTON IS APPOINTED

Judge C. W. Stanton is Given His Commission as Additional Judge
by Gov. John A. Johnson

The News-Tribune of this morning
says:
"The predicted happened this morning when Governor John A. Johnson announced the appointment of C. W.
Stanton, of Bemidji, as the third judge for the Fifteenth judicial district, the appointment being announced hardly before the ink was dry from the governor's signature endorsing the bill creating the job. The commission was today forwarded to Judge Stanton.
"C. W. Stanton was formerly judge in the Fifteenth district, but at the last election he was defeated by a Republican, Judge B. F. Wright. Stanton is, of course, a democrat."

NEW EMMANUEL MOVE RULE

All Patients Must Have Prior Advice
From Their Physicians.

In an effort to meet the criticisms
which have been made recently in regard to the Emmanuel movement by medical men and others, the Emmanuel clergy have adopted a set of rules designed to bring the physician and minister in closer co-operation, says a Boston dispatch. The rules were adopted on the suggestion of an advisory board of prominent Boston physicians. They are:

First.—No person shall be received for treatment unless with the approval of
and after having been thoroughly examined by his family physician, whose report of the examination shall be filed with the minister's records.

Second.—No patient shall be referred for diagnosis or treatment to any specialist or assistant, save with the advice and consent of the patient's own physician.

Third.—All patients who are not under the care of a physician must choose one and put himself in his care before they can receive instruction at Emmanuel church. To those who ask for advice in this choice there shall be handed a printed alphabetical list of all the general practitioners in the city.

LARGEST CONCRETE BRIDGE.

Hudson Memorial Across Spuyten
Duyvil Creek to Hold the Record.

The Hudson memorial bridge, connecting New York and Spuyten Duyvil, which will commemorate the discovery of the Hudson river by Hendrik Hudson nearly 300 years ago, will be about 1,500 feet long, with four semicircular arches of 108 foot span on the Spuyten Duyvil side and three on the New York, with an arch of 700 feet between them. The bridge will be of re-enforced concrete, and it will be the largest bridge ever built of stone, brick or concrete.

The crown of the main arch will be 185 feet above Spuyten Duyvil creek, or fifty feet higher than the floor of the Brooklyn bridge. Massive concrete piers 110 feet wide, 30 feet long and 180 feet high, joined to the bridge approaches, will form the abutments of the arch. On the top of both piers at each side is a large sphere several feet in diameter inclined at an angle,
representing the earth.

Separate floors for the subway and street traffic will be provided. The lower one, sixty-five feet wide, will be for subway tracks, pipe galleries and water mains. The upper will overhang the lower and have a fifty foot
roadway, besides two wide sidewalks.
Nearly two years will be necessary
from the date of completing the arch
to the opening of the bridge for traffic, making the total time for building the bridge about three years.

EACH HAS A CHILD TO GUARD.

New Feature In Fire Drill of an Argentine (Mo.) School.

If there is ever a fire at the Stanley
school in Argentine, Mo., the "big"
boys and girls will take care of the "little" ones. This school is outside the fire limits, and great care is taken with the fire drill. When the drill is sounded the children march out. In the hall a line of "older" children marches beside a line of those from the primary grade. The older child must see that the "little one" gets out safe.

The small boy and girl never know whether their partner is going to be a larger boy or a larger girl, as it all depends on the way they fall in line.

H. P. Butcher, superintendent of the Argentine schools, and C. E. Ackerman, principal of the Stanley school, held a fire drill at that school the other day. The building was emptied in forty seconds. One hundred and forty-

A POLICY OF MODERATION

Adopted by the Legislators of California.

FOR CENSUS OF JAPANESE

Assembly Votes Ten Thousand Dollars to Defray Expenses of the Work—Statistics to Be Used in Consideration of Future Legislation Pro-
sibly Involving a Request to Congress for an Asiatic Exclusion Act.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 12.—Moderation on the part of legislators and an evident disposition finally to dispose of all measures relating to Japanese and other aliens characterized the day's session of the legislature. Adopting a suggestion by Governor Gillett,
the assembly voted to appropriate $10,000 to defray the expenses of a census which shall show the number of Japanese in California and the per-suits in which they are engaged. The statistics are to be used in consideration of future legislation possibly involving a request by California for an Asiatic exclusion act.

In the senate a resolution by Senator Marc Anthony providing for a special election where the voters of California might express themselves
on the subject of Asiatic immigration
was defeated by a vote of 22 to 12.

The report of the committee on executive communications, advising against any anti-alien legislation at this time, had been made the special order for the day in the senate, but its consideration was shut off on a point of order and the matter probably will not be again revived.

ACTOR COMMITS SUICIDE

Well Known Englishman Ends Life
by Hanging.

New York, Feb. 12.—Charles Warner, aged sixty-six years, a well known English actor, committed suicide by hanging himself at the Hotel Seymour.

The suicide, who had been acting strangely for several months, left a rambling note in which he laid the motive for his act of self-destruction
to the persecution of "thieves, liars
and blackmailers," who, he declared, had mulcted him out of thousands and thousands.

Warner achieved prominence in England several years ago through his interpretation of the character of a drunkard in the play called "Drink,"
based on Zola's strong novel, "Nana."
This play, which ran for 1,000 consecutive nights, revealed Warner as a realistic actor of the first rank. His portrayal of the last stages of delirium tremens was made the theme for numberless sermons in pulpits in every part of Great Britain, the horrible effects of drink depicted by the actor being seized upon as a frightful object lesson.

Recently Warner went into vande-ville, achieving success.

QUICKLY RETURNS VERDICT

Jury Finds Bell Guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter.

Denver, Feb. 12.—Within less than two hours after argument of counsel had ended, the jury in the case of Burdett Bell, who shot George Cuvier Dury to death a month ago because he stole his wife, returned a verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter.
Contrary to expectations Bell did not plead the "unwritten law," but justified the shooting of Dury on the ground that he was defending his own life. Bell is from Cincinnati and is the son of a well known scientist.
Dury hailed originally from Dayton, O.

During the trial Bell's wife told the story of her relations with Dury, saying that she was attracted to him by his promise of a career on the stage.
The shooting occurred in the hallway
of a rooming house where Dury and Mrs. Bell had been living together.

Prominent Ranchman Frozen.

Chiseman, one of the wealthiest and best known men in this section, lost his life in Monday's blizzard while trying to recover sheep on the plains
sixty miles northeast of here, where he has a ranch. Mr. Chiseman was fifty-four years old. He was a prominent member of the Masonic lodge and a former member of the South Dakota legislature.

Farmer Was Not Murdered.

Portsmouth, Ia., Feb. 12.—A coroner's jury decided that the death of William J. Kruger was accidental.
Kruger, who was a wealthy farmer,
was found dead half a mile from home
with an ugly cut on the head. Evidence given at the inquest indicated that Kruger was subject to fainting spells and that he had fallen in a faint and broken his nose and skull.

CONSERVATION CONFERENCE.

All the States of North America Will Be Represented.

Arrangements for the North American conservation conference between representatives of the United States, Canada and Mexico at the White House Feb. 18 are going forward rapidly, following the cordial acceptance
by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier, and Earl Grey, governor general, of Canada and President Diaz of Mexico of President Roosevelt's invitation to send delegates. The conference will discuss the situation with regard to the natural resources of the respective countries and help prepare a general plan adapted to promote the welfare of the nations concerned, in accordance with President Roosevelt's suggestion.

This international conference will meet at the White House by President Roosevelt's invitation. It will not be a large gathering, as was the conference of governors at the White House
last May or the joint conservation conference last December between the national conservation commission, the governors and the representatives of state conservation commissions and conservation committees of national organizations. The attendance will be limited to the representatives of Canada and Mexico and representatives of the state department of the United States government and other executive departments which can render particular assistance to the conferees
in their deliberations and the national conservation commission.

Canada has already taken active steps in preparation for the conference and recently sent to the national conservation commission a number of carefully prepared maps which show
the present status of the public lands
of the Dominion as well as the distribution of the principal natural resources and the development of its transportation systems. The Canadian authorities have also gathered together and sent to the chairman of the commission a comprehensive collection of government documents bearing on the natural resources of the country. These have been carefully indexed and bound together according to subjects. They will be used at the forthcoming conference.

PATROL BELL CURE FOR VICE.

Cleveland Police Chief's New Treatment For Misdoers.

We are going to try a new treatment for miscreants. This is the "bell cure," of which Cleveland's chief of police, Kohler, is the author. It is a variation of the Golden Rule, but less harsh. It has been tried out and found good, the chief says, and will now be a regular institution. This is the way it is worked.

Some saloon has been real noisy lately, and one night the bartender chides a vexatious patron with a poker.

"Clang, clang," comes the patrol
wagon to the door, and bang-banging, it stays there in the street until the disturbance subsides. Then the wagon rumbles back to the station—no arrests, no jail, no police court trial.
"Fine," says the chief, "for the erring who are not vicious. It prevents rows and disorders, for the proprietors of those places will lose business
if the visits of the wagon are too frequent."

Sometimes the disturbers are put into the wagon and taken to headquarters after the bell has collected a crowd. At headquarters they are released with a warning.

"Fine again," says the chief, "for this shows the crowd that the place is under police surveillance, and they won't patronize it."
The police man for this treatment
is "the highball."

GREEN PAINT BEST FOR HENS.

Newfield (N. Y.) Man Finds Summer
Color Makes Them Lay More Eggs.

William H. Brown, down Newfield way, near Ithaca, N. Y., has discovered that light green houses make the best kind of environment for hens, because they lay more eggs when the henhouses are painted that color.

Brown, who has experimented with the effects of colors on hens for some time, says he finds that his flock of hens lay from one to three eggs more a day since he put the green paint on the henhouse. He noticed no perceptible change when other colors were tried.

The color theory is that the hens should have the same color scheme in their winter environment as nature offers in spring and summer.

Peculiar Floating Dock.

The German naval constructors have recently turned out a peculiar form of dock ship, intended particularly for the salvage of disabled submarines and torpedo boats. It consists of two hulls resembling ships linked together, fore
and aft, high above the water, by steel girders made up of angles and plates.
A torpedo boat or submarine can steam between the two hulls and then be lifted by cranes and tackles until it rests upon a platform formed by hinged beams projecting across from one hull to the other. The propeller shafts of the dock ship are driven by electric motors.

Use For Despised Cocklebur.

The despised cocklebur bids fair to become a product of cultivation. An experiment of making oil from the weed in a mill erected for the purpose
at Vidalia, La., is said to have proved very successful, and the firms in Jonesville, La., have gone in for its gathering on a large scale. The promoters of the plan say the future may develop a cocklebur plantation in place of cotton.

INDICATIVE OF BETTER BUSINESS

Minnesota & International Brought
in Several Trains of Lumber, Etc., Last Night

IT LOOKS VERY ENCOURAGING

Increase in Traffic in That Line
Would Indicate Increase in
Lumber Demand

Taken together with the fact that there begins to be some traffic in logs, which were a drug on the market early in the winter, the sudden activity of movements in that line on the Minnesota & International railroad is decidedly encouraging. During last night about 120 cars of lumber, poles, posts, pulp wood, etc., came in from the north. Another train of 45 cars was unable to get in within the 16 hours prescribed by law and will arrive late today. In view of the extreme quietness in this line for some months back this sudden activity is looked upon by men and others as indicative of a return to normal traffic along those lines.

Bill to Sell Land Condemned
by Government

Washington, Feb. 10.—Congressman Lindbergh today introduced a bill which authorizes the secretary of the interior to offer for sale the lands in Cass, Crow Wing, Mille Lacs, Morrison and Hubbard counties in Minnesota, which have been condemned by the government for overflow land on account of reservoir dams and others that may be built.

There is a good deal of this land that does not overflow and the plan is to sell this, subject, of course, to the easement of the government on the overflow. The bill also includes the sale of islands of not more than ten acres. The land is not to be sold for less than $5 per acre.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Geo. Sargent was Pleasantly Surprised at His Home, 818 Third
Street South Thursday Evening

One of the most pleasant surprises of the season was sprung on Geo. Sargent at his home Thursday night, Feb. 11, the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday, when the degree team of Iola Council, No. 15, Degree of Pochontas took possession of his home during his absence at the Red Men's meeting. When he arrived home he was completely taken back to see the house filled with "squaws" and their husbands. The time was very pleasantly spent in playing 500 and other amusements, after which an elegant lunch was served, the guests doing ample justice to it. Mr. Sargent was presented with a handsome gold watch chain from the degree team as a token of their esteem for the interest he has taken in the council. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. George E. Abbott and Mr. Sargent responded in a few but choice words telling his appreciation of the gift. The gentleman's head prize was won by W. M. Sinclair while Geo. E. Abbott captured the consolation prize. Mrs. Chas. Beugnot won the ladies' prize which was a beautiful glass dish. The party broke up about 1:30 in the morning when the guests departed for their respective homes after having spent a most pleasant evening.

SIMPLE RECIPE CURES CATARRH

to Relieve and Prevent Catarrh

A FINE HOME PRESCRIPTION

Victims Should Make Some Up
and Try it as it Doesn't
Cost Much

Here is a prescription which should be valued by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it should prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Anyone can mix the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. Get these ingredients from any pharmacist whom you know handles only pure drugs.

This prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catharral affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable, though simple, recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every reader who suffers from catarrh.

Backus-Brooks Company is Having

J. F. Malone, of Minneapolis, was in Brainerd today on his way to St. Cloud from Northome. Mr. Malone is in the employ of the Backus-Brooks company and has been at Northome superintending the taking of logs out of the lake and loading them on cars for transportation to International Falls. Mr. Malone states that the Backus-Brooks Co. will erect a large saw mill at International Falls as soon as spring opens and the logs are being hauled so as to be in readiness for the new mill.

"Dick's Honeymoon," the delightful comedy in three acts, was given to a fair sized audience, by the Majestic Stock Co. last night, and those who witnessed the performance say that such a laughter provoking comedy as this has not been seen in Brainerd in several years. The light comedy work of Mr. Harlow, proves him to be a farceur far above the average and we would suggest to the young manager-actor that he keep in this line of work, as it is his forte. The other members of the company did excellent work, especially Miss Claudia Korinek, in the part of Letty, and Miss Edwards was a delight as the dainty Suzanne. Mr. Munsel made much of the part of the choleric and verbose old father. Mr. Roy Easthagen as Dick's friend, shows that this young man has the making of a clever juvenile performer. Miss Raeno played the dual roles of Camille and Freda cleverly, and Mr. Bert Hartman did well as the duke. The comedy will be given for the balance of the week with a special matinee Saturday, and we can heartily endorse this comedy and these people to the amusement loving public of Brainerd and those who miss seeing this comedy will miss a decided treat. Next Monday the company will open for three nights in a delightful musical comedy, "The Governor's Wife," an English comedy adapted for the American stage by Mr. Harlow. The prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents. Saturday matinee 10 cents.

C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Gross Sights Left in Enforce-

THE DISPATCH has been informed by other parties that dead dogs are being hauled out beyond the ice house in East Brainerd, and dumped in the brush, instead of being hauled to the dumping grounds.

How to Kill and Cook Possum.

Just how a possum ought to be killed and cooked is told in the Atlanta Constitution, by an expert known far and wide in Georgia. He says:

"To kill a possum his head should be placed beneath a stick. Stand on the stick and pull the possum's tail until his neck is broken. A possum requires careful treatment, and to cook one to perfection a peculiar arrangement is necessary. A pan on legs should be provided with a hole in one end which can be plugged. Coals placed under the pan will slowly cook the possum, and as the grease runs out of the carcass it should be drawn off from time to time. All the time the carcass should be basted with a sauce made of pepper and vinegar. In the meantime the potatoes should be boiled. When the possum is almost done the potatoes should be packed in the pan around the possum, a little sugar sprinkled over them, and then the gravy which has been drawn off from the pan should be poured on, after which possum and potatoes should be browned to a turn."

FREAKS OF FOOD.

Queer Effects That Are a Puzzle to the Physician.

As regards drink, writes Dr. Beverly Robinson in the Medical Record, I have known a tumblerful of milk to bring on an attack of asthma with hives in an otherwise healthy child. When the milk was taken and a piece of bread eaten at the same time there was no asthma and no hives. I could explain this by saying that the bread helped break up curd and that stomachic digestion was not interfered with. But why and precisely in what manner and for what reason asthma and hives were occasioned are certainly matters largely of thought and conjecture. I have known mushrooms in good condition and on repeated occasions to cause most distressing oedema of the uvula and palate. Prior to these attacks the same individual had eaten mushrooms repeatedly with no bad or unpleasant effects at all and had thoroughly enjoyed them. I have known an individual in whom a single strawberry would give neuralgia of the teeth which lasted twelve to twenty-four hours. Again, prior to the attacks of neuralgia of the dental branches of the fifth nerve the same individual had eaten repeatedly and abundantly of strawberries without pain, ache or unpleasant symptoms of any kind. In this case it seemed as though the only plausible though not entirely satisfactory explanation was that with increasing years strawberries had become inimical to that patient.

Judge C. W. Stanton is Given His Commission as Additional Judge
by Gov. John A. Johnson

The News-Tribune of this morning says:

"The predicted happened this morning when Governor John A. Johnson announced the appointment of C. W. Stanton, of Bemidji, as the third judge for the Fifteenth judicial district, the appointment being announced hardly before the ink was dry from the governor's signature endorsing the bill creating the job. The commission was today forwarded to Judge Stanton."

"C. W. Stanton was formerly judge in the Fifteenth district, but at the last election he was defeated by a Republican, Judge B. F. Wright. Stanton is, of course, a democrat."

NEW EMMANUEL MOVE RULES

All Patients Must Have Prior Advice
From Their Physicians.

In an effort to meet the criticisms which have been made recently in regard to the Emmanuel movement by medical men and others, the Emmanuel clergy have adopted a set of rules designed to bring the physician and minister in closer co-operation, says a Boston dispatch. The rules were adopted on the suggestion of an advisory board of prominent Boston physicians. They are:

First.—No person shall be received for treatment unless with the approval of and after having been thoroughly examined by his family physician, whose report of the examination shall be filed with the minister's records.

Second.—No patient shall be referred for diagnosis or treatment to any specialist or assistant, save with the advice and consent of the patient's own physician.

Third.—All patients who are not under the care of a physician must choose one and put himself in his care before they can receive instruction at Emmanuel church. To those who ask for advice in this choice there shall be handed a printed alphabetical list of all the general practitioners in the city.

"It thus rests wholly with the physicians of this community (Boston)," says the announcement, "and not with the Emmanuel clergy, to decide whether or not a patient should be referred to a neurologist or other specialist and which patients, if any, are suitable for treatment by moral and religious re-educational Emmanuel. We believe that under these rules the fundamental object of the movement deserves the support of all physicians and of the community generally."

LARGEST CONCRETE BRIDGE.

Hudson Memorial Across Spuyten
Duyvil Creek to Hold the Record.

The Hudson memorial bridge, connecting New York and Spuyten Duyvil, which will commemorate the discovery of the Hudson river by Hendrik Hudson nearly 300 years ago, will be about 1,500 feet long, with four semicircular arches of 108 foot span on the Spuyten Duyvil side and three on the New York side, with an arch of 700 feet between them. The bridge will be of re-enforced concrete, and it will be the largest bridge ever built of stone, brick or concrete.

The crown of the main arch will be 185 feet above Spuyten Duyvil creek, or fifty feet higher than the floor of the Brooklyn bridge. Massive concrete piers 110 feet wide, 30 feet long and 130 feet high, joined to the bridge approaches, will form the abutments of the arch. On the top of both piers at each side is a large sphere several feet in diameter inclined at an angle, representing the earth.

Separate floors for the subway and street traffic will be provided. The lowest one, sixty-five feet wide, will be for subway tracks, pipe galleries and water mains. The upper will overhang the lower and have a fifty foot roadway, besides two wide sidewalks. Nearly two years will be necessary from the date of completing the arch to the opening of the bridge for traffic, making the total time for building the bridge about three years.

EACH HAS A CHILD TO GUARD.

New Feature in Fire Drill of an Ar-
gentine (Mo.) School.

If there is ever a fire at the Stanley school in Argentine, Mo., the "big" boys and girls will take care of the "little" ones. This school is outside the fire limits, and great care is taken with the fire drill. When the drill is sounded the children march out. In the hall a line of "older" children marches beside a line of those from the primary grade. The older child must see that the "little one" gets out safe.

The small boy and girl never know whether their partner is going to be a larger boy or a larger girl, as it all depends on the way they fall in line.

H. P. Butcher, superintendent of the Argentine schools, and C. E. Ackerman, principal of the Stanley school, held a fire drill at that school the other day. The building was emptied in forty seconds. One hundred and forty-four pupils are enrolled at this school.

Fire drills are conducted at the high school and five grade schools in Argentine once or twice every month.

A POLICY OF MODERATION

Adopted by the Legislators of

Assembly Votes Ten Thousand Dollars to Defray Expenses of the Work—Statistics to Be Used in Consideration of Future Legislation Probably Involving a Request to Congress for an Asiatic Exclusion Act.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 12.—Moderation on the part of legislators and an evident disposition finally to dispose of all measures relating to Japanese and other aliens characterized the day's session of the legislature. Adopting a suggestion by Governor Gillett, the assembly voted to appropriate $10,000 to defray the expenses of a census which shall show the number of Japanese in California and the pursuits in which they are engaged. The statistics are to be used in consideration of future legislation possibly involving a request by California for an Asiatic exclusion act.

In the senate a resolution by Senator Marc Anthony providing for a special election where the voters of California might express themselves on the subject of Asiatic immigration was defeated by a vote of 22 to 12.

The report of the committee on executive communications, advising against any anti-alien legislation at this time, had been made the special order for the day in the senate, but its consideration was shut off on a point of order and the matter probably will not be again revived.

New York, Feb. 12.—Charles Warner, aged sixty-six years, a well known English actor, committed suicide by hanging himself at the Hotel Seymour.

All the States of North America Will
Be Represented.

Arrangements for the North American conservation conference between representatives of the United States, Canada and Mexico at the White House Feb. 18 are going forward rapidly, following the cordial acceptance by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier, and Earl Grey, governor general, of Canada and President Diaz of Mexico of President Roosevelt's invitation to send delegates. The conference will discuss the situation with regard to the natural resources of the respective countries and help prepare a general plan adapted to promote the welfare of the nations concerned, in accordance with President Roosevelt's suggestion.

This international conference will meet at the White House by President Roosevelt's invitation. It will not be a large gathering, as was the conference of governors at the White House last May or the joint conservation conference last December between the national conservation commission, the governors and the representatives of state conservation commissions and conservation committees of national organizations. The attendance will be limited to the representatives of Canada and Mexico and representatives of the state department of the United States government and other executive departments which can render particular assistance to the conferees in their deliberations and the national conservation commission.

Canada has already taken active steps in preparation for the conference and recently sent to the national conservation commission a number of carefully prepared maps which show the present status of the public lands of the Dominion as well as the distribution of the principal natural resources and the development of its transportation systems. The Canadian authorities have also gathered together and sent to the chairman of the commission a comprehensive collection of government documents bearing on the natural resources of the country. These have been carefully indexed and bound together according to subjects. They will be used at the forthcoming conference.

PATROL BELL CURE FOR VICE.

Cleveland Police Chief's New Treat-
ment For Misdoers.

We are going to try a new treatment for miscreants. This is the "bell cure," of which Cleveland's chief of police, Kohler, is the author. It is a variation of the Golden Rule, but less harsh. It has been tried out and found good, the chief says, and will now be a regular institution. This is the way it is worked.

Some saloon has been real noisy lately, and one night the bartender chides a vexatious patron with a poker.

"Clang, clang," comes the patrol wagon to the door, and, bang-bang-bang, it stays there in the street until the disturbance subsides. Then the wagon rumbles back to the station—no arrests, no jail, no police court trial.

"Fine," says the chief, "for the erring who are not vicious. It prevents rows and disorders, for the proprietors of those places will lose business if the visits of the wagon are too frequent."

Sometimes the disturbers are put into the wagon and taken to headquarters after the bell has collected a crowd. At headquarters they are released with a warning.

"Fine again," says the chief, "for this shows the crowd that the place is under police surveillance, and they won't patronize it."

The police name for this treatment is "the highball."

GREEN PAINT BEST FOR HENS.

Newfield (N. Y.) Man Finds Summer
Color Makes Them Lay More Eggs.

William H. Brown, down Newfield way, near Ithaca, N. Y., has discovered that light green houses make the best kind of environment for hens, because they lay more eggs when the henhouses are painted that color.

Brown, who has experimented with the effects of colors on hens for some time, says he finds that his flock of hens lay from one to three eggs more a day since he put the green paint on the henhouse. He noticed no perceptible change when other colors were tried.

The color theory is that the hens should have the same color scheme in their winter environment as nature offers in spring and summer.

Peculiar Floating Dock.

The German naval constructors have recently turned out a peculiar form of dock ship, intended particularly for the salvage of disabled submarines and torpedo boats. It consists of two hulls resembling ships linked together, fore and aft, high above the water, by steel girders made up of angles and plates. A torpedo boat or submarine can steam between the two hulls and then be lifted by cranes and tackles until it rests upon a platform formed by hinged beams projecting across from one hull to the other. The propeller shafts of the dock ship are driven by electric motors.

Use For Despised Cocklebur.

The despised cocklebur bids fair to become a product of cultivation. An experiment of making oil from the weed in a mill erected for the purpose at Vidalia, La., is said to have proved very successful, and the firms in Jonesville, La., have gone in for its gathering on a large scale. The promoters of the plan say the future may develop a cocklebur plantation in place of cotton.

TAFT GUEST OF NEW ORLEANS

Enthusiastically Received in the Southern City.

CABINET SPECULATION RIFE

Regarded as Highly Probable That Offers of Cabinet Positions Are to Be Made Without Great Delay—No One Yet Decided on for the Treasury Portfolio—Taft Has Drafted Inaugural Address.

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—President Elect William H. Taft landed here on his return from Panama and was most enthusiastically received by the entire city, whose guest he is to be until Saturday morning.

Mr. Taft made a brief speech in which he heartily approved the present lock type of canal across the Isthmus of Panama. He reviewed a parade of enthusiastic citizens miles in length and attended one of the carnival season balls, that of the Elites of Oberon. Mr. Taft today will address the negro Y. M. C. A., spend several hours automobiling and at night be the guest of honor at an elaborate banquet, at which nearly 500 prominent citizens will pay $25 a plate to participate. Saturday morning the president elect will go to Cincinnati, from where on Monday he will leave for Washington, returning again to Cincinnati Wednesday.

Mr. Taft received the first news of the constitutional question which has been raised against the appointment of Mr. Knox to a cabinet position by wireless Wednesday, when he was apprised, not only by press messages, but by a dispatch giving the views of Senator Knox. That he was somewhat disturbed over the situation was admitted, but when he received the news of the disposition of congress to amend the cabinet salary law by making the pay of the secretary of state what it was before the recent increase he was inclined to take this as a happy solution of the difficulty. Pending a conference on the matter, which will take place between Mr. Taft and Senator Knox in Washington next Wednesday, the president elect regards it as impolitic to discuss the situation for publication.

Cabinet Speculation Rife.

With the return of Mr. Taft to the country cabinet speculation became at once active. No information is to be given to the public, however, from the authoritative source. Mr. Taft said he should adhere to his previously announced plan of keeping silent and also keeping cabinet appointments open until the very last moment to provide against possible contingencies.

It is regarded, however, as highly probable that offers of cabinet positions are to be made without great delay. Mr. Taft said he expected to be placed in possession of information he desired and had asked to be obtained for him during his absence. The arrival here of Frank B. Hitchcock, who will confer with the president elect, and the presence here of J. C. Shaffer, owner of the Chicago Evening Post, on whose judgment Mr. Taft said he should place weight regarding cabinet aspirants from the vicinity of Chicago, made it apparent that cabinet activities have begun. In this connection there was a rumor here that J. M. Dickinson of Chicago, general counsel for the Illinois Central railway, was being considered for the war portfolio, but no confirmation in the way of a positive statement could be obtained.

From what Mr. Taft said it is a fair inference that he has as yet decided on no one for the treasury portfolio, but that as to the other places his ideas are decidedly more definite.

On the trip from Panama, Mr. Taft made the first draft of his inaugural address. This he intends to submit to certain friends in Washington on his forthcoming visit there next week.

Several Socialist banners which were displayed in front of a lodging house in the line of the Taft parade were ordered down by the local authorities just before the arrival of the president elect. The demand was made on the ground that the inscriptions flaunted in the face of Judge Taft would not conform with the hospitable and nonpartisan spirit in which it was decreed the whole city should receive him. The banners were taken down.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Iowa Man Shoots Woman Who Had Left Him.

Waverly, Ia., Feb. 12.—Hidden behind a tree in the yard of H. K. Lambert, Frank Thompson shot and killed his wife, eighteen years old, as she stepped from the house. Thompson fired two shots, both bullets taking effect. He then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

Thompson's wife had left him because he tried to sell her into white slavery.

Attell and Driscoll Matched.

Dayton, O., Feb. 12.—Abe Attell's manager has announced that the California fighter has been matched to meet Jem Driscoll, the English champion, in New York on either Feb. 13 or 19.

SO KNOX MAY ENTER CABINET

Senate Repeals Increase in Salary of Secretary of State.

Washington, Feb. 12.—A report was made to the senate from the committee on appropriations concerning the attitude of congress toward appropriations for the support of the secret service. Senator Hemenway, who presented the report, added that the president was justified in making the statement contained in his message to congress.

Just before adjournment the senate passed a joint resolution in the exact form by which it had been passed by the house, declaring Feb. 12 to be a special legal holiday in the District of Columbia and the territories in honor of the centenary of the birth of Lincoln.

A bill was passed also repealing the increase in the salary of the secretary of state from $8,000 to $12,000 so as to permit Senator Knox to accept an appointment as secretary of state.

Senator McLaughlin made a speech in opposition to the passage of any bill for the re-enlistment of the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment accused of having "shot up" Brownsville, Tex.

AGRICULTURAL BILL PASSED

House Finally Disposes of the Appropriation Measure.

Washington, Feb. 12.—After having traveled a thorny road for a week the agricultural appropriation bill was passed by the house of representatives practically as it came from the committee. The debate dragged wearily on for several hours when the proceedings were enlivened by a brief and spicy tilt between Mr. Macon of Arkansas and Mr. Cook of Colorado.

A successful fight led by Mr. Sabath of Illinois was made against the bill amending the naturalization law, which, among other things increased the naturalization fee from $5 to $10. By an emphatic vote the conference report on the measure was rejected and the bill laid upon the table.

A tribute to Lincoln by Mr. Butler of Illinois closed the day's proceedings.

RURAL GUARDS OF CUBA IN MUTINY

Attempted to Enter Apartments of President Gomez.

Havana, Feb. 12.—Mutiny broke out among a company of the rural guard just as the men were about to embark in launches to be transported across the harbor to Cabanas fortress. When the men learned that they were to be transferred from the rural guard to the permanent army, in accordance with a decree issued by Governor Magoon authorizing the transfer of one battalion, they refused to embark and, led by a subaltern officer, rushed to the palace. They entered the court yard and demanded an immediate audience of President Gomez.

Some attempted to ascend a stairway to the presidential apartments, but the way was barred by the police guard armed with revolvers. The mutineers, being unarmed, thereupon retreated, but they remained in the courtyard, shouting that they refused to submit to the transfer and demanded to be returned to their homes in Matanzas and Santa Clara, whence they had come to participate in the inaugural ceremonies.

For a time there was great excitement around the palace precincts and General Pino Guerra, commander of the permanent army, and General Montague, commander of the rural guard, were summoned. They succeeded eventually in restoring order and in persuading the men to submit. The men were then sent under an armed escort to Cabanas.

CARL LOOSE FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

New York, Feb. 12.—The jury in the case of Carl Loose, on trial for the killing of his sixteen-year-old daughter, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Loose was convicted on testimony given by his two sons, one of them a preacher, and of a daughter, the latter charging her father with a heinous crime.

It was as a consequence of his banishment from home after the discovery of this crime that Loose shot the youngest of his children and wounded his oldest son, Frederick W. Loose. Insanity was the defense set up.

To Save a Man's Life.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 12.—Thirty-two medical students of the University of Louisville volunteered to give bits of their skin to save the life of Luther Clifton, who was burned at East St. Louis about a month ago. Doctors have begun on the work of grafting and the entire medical profession of Louisville is watching the outcome.

Offer Surprised Jeffries.

Fresno, Cal., Feb. 12.—James J. Jeffries when informed of the offer of Billy Delaney to match him and Al Kaufman for a $10,000 side bet, expressed surprise that his former manager should offer to bet against him. "Kaufman could not lick a postage stamp," was his laconic comment.

ANOTHER CRISIS IN TURKEY

New Government Already Finds Trouble on Its Hands.

Constantinople, Feb. 12.—The new government seems to be on the edge of a serious crisis as the result of the sudden removal of Osman Nizami Pasha, minister of war, and Arif Pasha, minister of marine, who, without any public explanation, were replaced on Wednesday by Nazim Pasha and Husni Pasha, respectively. Nazim Pasha has been commander of the Second army corps at Adrianople, where he has shown great talent for organization. Husni Pasha is a vice admiral.

It is learned that Kiamil Pasha, the grand vizier, in discharging the ministers, was actuated by the necessity of frustrating a coup d'etat which was being arranged by the Committee of Union and Progress to establish a military dictatorship under Prince Yussuf Izzedin. The affair is the climax to a struggle between the two rival reform parties, the Committee of Union and Progress and the Liberal Union. The committee is strongly opposed to Kiamil Pasha, and is composed largely of young officers, including all the officers of the Macedonian army, which was largely instrumental in the success of the "Young Turkey" revolution.

The crisis was further developed by the resignation of the president of the council, Hassan Fehmy, and the threatened resignation of the ministers of justice, interior and finance.

Violent Storm in Spain.

Madrid, Feb. 12.—A violent storm is raging along the eastern coast of Spain. In Valencia harbor several vessels came into collision and a fishing boat was wrecked, three of the crew perishing. Trees have been uprooted, chimneys blown down and roofs damaged.

Earthquake in France.

Rodez, France, Feb. 12.—A sharp earth shock was experienced in this district. It was preceded by dull rumblings. Two oscillations were recorded. No damage is reported.

ENDED HIS LIFE WITH GAS

Financial Secretary of a Church Committed Suicide.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—A gas-filled room in the rear of the church of which he had been financial secretary; a letter of farewell written on the back of a map of the Holy Land, which hung on the wall—this was the closing scene of the life of Allen Depue, who, despite the spelling of his name, claimed to be a distant relative of Senator Chauncey M. Depew. The facts in the case came out at the inquest. In his somewhat disconnected letter Depue referred to sisters in Boston and Des Moines and a nephew in Denver.

The church of which Depue had been financial secretary for several years is the Roseland Central Presbyterian. Mrs. Depue, the widow, testified that her husband had told her he had been systematically black mailed since his boyhood, but he never told her the details. He refers to it in his letter. Recently the trustees of the church accused the financial secretary of a shortage of several hundred dollars. After insisting on his innocence Depue promised to return the money last Monday night. In this he failed and his body was found by the pastor of the church the following Wednesday just before the evening prayer meeting.

COMMITTS SUICIDE IN JAIL

Crazed Austrian Hangs Himself With Straps.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 12.—Martin Oberman, a crazed Austrian who fatally stabbed one and seriously injured two fellow passengers on the Great Western train near Berwick, Ia., committed suicide in the county jail by hanging himself with the straps with which he was bound. In his ravings he had torn off his straight jacket.

GERMANS DISPLAY INTENSE CURIOSITY

Concerning Hardinge-Von Buelow Conference.

Berlin, Feb. 12.—Intense curiosity is being displayed by the German people concerning Sir Charles Hardinge's conference with Chancellor von Buelow. The authorities, however, maintain the strictest reticence except to state that every subject was touched upon in the policy of both nations interested and that the result of the discussion was most satisfactory to both sides. It is understood that before the departure of King Edward, Sir Charles will have a further conference with the chancellor.

The indisposition of the king, who was suffering from a mild attack of bronchial catarrh, is so slight that he was able to carry out the greater part of the prearranged programme without inconvenience. Accompanied by the queen and the emperor and empress, his majesty paid a lengthy visit to the Emperor Frederick museum. The royal party afterwards dined with the crown prince and crown princess at their palace, after which they attended a gala performance of "Sardanapalus" at the opera.

FOLLOWING HEATED DEBATE

County Local Option Repeal Bill Passed by Indiana Assembly.

Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—The Proctor-Tomlinson county local option repeal bill was passed by the Indiana house of representatives by a vote of 52 to 44. The Kleckner bill, substituting township and ward local option for county option and understood to be the Democratic platform measure, failed to pass for lack of a constitutional majority of 51. The vote on this bill was 48 to 47.

The passage of the Proctor-Tomlinson bill followed the hottest debate of the session. It was agreed upon as a compromise measure by the Democratic majority of the house. There were ten Democratic representatives, however, who voted against the bill. Four Republicans voted for it.

Champions of the Proctor-Tomlinson compromise bill express confidence that their bill will pass the senate, which is controlled by Republicans.

The Proctor-Tomlinson bill provides for incorporated town and city ward local option. It allows but one saloon to 500 inhabitants and does away with saloons owned by breweries.

WILL OVERRULE THE MOTION

Court Will Not Grant Mrs. Lemp a Decree as Case Now Stands.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—Before the trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Lillian Handlan Lemp adjourned until Saturday, Mrs. Lemp's attorneys announced they will file a motion Saturday asking that a decree be entered in her favor as it now stands. It will bar out the testimony of William J. Lemp, Jr., and all of his witnesses if granted. Judge Hitchcock told the lawyers he would overrule the motion and would hear the case to the end.

DARWIN CENTENNIAL TODAY

New York, Feb. 12.—In honor of Charles Darwin, the famous English scientist, who was born on the same day as Abraham Lincoln, the scientists of New York assembled in the American Museum of Natural History today.

The programme of the centennial included the presentation of a bust of Darwin to the museum and addresses setting forth the relations of his work to various sciences. The bust was given to the museum by the New York Academy of Sciences, the president of the academy, Charles F. Cox, making the presentation address. Mr. Cox is one of the most eminent authorities in the country on Darwinism. The bust was accepted by Professor Henry F. Osborn, president of the museum. Addresses were also made by Professor John J. Stevenson, Professor N. L. Brooks and Professor H. E. Bumpus. The celebration was directed by Professor E. O. Hovey, the famous geologist. In connection with today's programme the museum opened to the public an exhibition of articles relating to the life and works of Darwin.

Columbia university honored Darwin's memory by the inauguration of a series of lectures on Darwinism.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

Unsettled, Stormy Weather Has Accentuated Quiet Now Prevailing.

New York, Feb. 12.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says unsettled stormy weather has accentuated the quiet prevailing in general trade and the situation as a whole is rather irregular. The first of the spring season's buyers' excursions are, however, attracting merchants to the leading markets East and West and while conservatism characterizes dealing the feeling is still one of optimism as to the future. In the industries operations as a whole are still below the normal. Best reports come from the textile trades, particularly cotton and woolen dress goods lines. Some light cottons are sold ahead to October. The metal and coal trades are rather conspicuous for the dullness of the demand and the continuance in the former industry of output at a reduced rate. Reports as to collections reflect the irregularity due to weather or the reduced purchasing power of the country and are still only about fair.

Big Concern Burned Out.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 12.—Fire destroyed the warehouse and office buildings and the entire contents of the Parkhurst-Davis Mercantile company, the largest wholesale grocery firm in Topeka. A rough estimate of the total loss is $250,000. The fire started probably from chemicals. John E. Munson, night watchman, was killed when a portion of the wall fell.

Dorando Defeats Smallwood.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—Dorando Pietri, the Italian Marathon runner, defeated Percy Smallwood in a twelve mile race at the Third regiment armory. The Italian led from the start. Smallwood quit in the eleventh mile, saying his leg had failed him. At that time Dorando was leading by four laps. The winner's time for the twelve miles was 1:19:16 2/3.

The Lady Was Not the Ghost.

An Irish family once had a ghost so troublesome that they sent for detectives. One of these men late at night fell asleep in his chair. The lady of the house chanced to come into the room and could not resist the temptation to groan and rattle her keys. She had never played ghost before. It was momentary indiscretion. But the policeman did not and could hardly be expected to believe this. He said it was hardly worth while to bring him from Dublin, and he withdrew in dudgeon. Yet the lady was not really the ghost. He was sulking in retirement; hence doubt has been cast on the ghosts of haunted houses even among reflecting minds.—London News.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. CABINET SPECULATION RIFE

Regarded as Highly Probable That Offers of Cabinet Positions Are to Be Made Without Great Delay—No One Yet Decided on for the Treasury Portfolio—Taft Has Drafted Inaugural Address.

Shaffer, owner of the Chicago Evening Post, on whose judgment Mr. Taft said he should place weight regarding cabinet aspirants from the vicinity of Chicago, made it apparent that cabinet activities have begun. In this connection there was a rumor here that J. M. Dickinson of Chicago, general counsel for the Illinois Central railway, was being considered for the war portfolio, but no confirmation in the way of a positive statement could be obtained.

From what Mr. Taft said it is a fair inference that he has as yet decided on no one for the treasury portfolio, but that as to the other places his ideas are decidedly more definite.

On the trip from Panama, Mr. Taft made the first draft of his inaugural address. This he intends to submit to certain friends in Washington on his forthcoming visit there next week. Several Socialist banners which were displayed in front of a lodging house in the line of the Taft parade were ordered down by the local authorities just before the arrival of the president elect. The demand was made on the ground that the inscriptions flaunted in the face of Judge Taft would not conform with the hospitable and nonpartisan spirit in which it was decreed the whole city should receive him. The banners were taken down.

Iowa Man Shoots Woman Who Had Left Him.

Waverly, Ia., Feb. 12.—Hidden behind a tree in the yard of H. K. Lambert, Frank Thompson shot and killed his wife, eighteen years old, as she stepped from the house. Thompson fired two shots, both bullets taking effect. He then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

Thompson's wife had left him because he tried to sell her into white slavery.

Attell and Driscoll Matched.

Dayton, O., Feb. 12.—Abe Attell's manager has announced that the California fighter has been matched to meet Jim Driscoll, the English champion, in New York on either Feb. 18 or 19.

Senate Repeals Increase in Salary of Secretary of State.

Washington, Feb. 12.—A report was made to the senate from the committee on appropriations on the president's statements concerning the attitude of congress toward appropriations for the support of the secret service. Senator Hemenway, who presented the report, added that the president was justified in making the statement contained in his message to congress.

Just before adjournment the senate passed a joint resolution in the exact form by which it had been passed by the house, declaring Feb. 12 to be a special legal holiday in the District of Columbia and the territories in honor of the centenary of the birth of Lincoln.

A bill was passed also repealing the increase in the salary of the secretary of state from $8,000 to $12,000 so as to permit Senator Knox to accept an appointment as secretary of state.

Senator McLaughlin made a speech in opposition to the passage of any bill for the re-enlistment of the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment accused of having "shot up" Brownsville, Tex.

House Finally Disposes of the Appropriation Measure.

Washington, Feb. 12.—After having traveled a thorny road for a week the agricultural appropriation bill was passed by the house of representatives practically as it came from the committee. The debate dragged wearily on for several hours when the proceedings were enlivened by a brief but spicy tilt between Mr. Macon of Arkansas and Mr. Cook of Colorado.

A successful fight led by Mr. Sabath of Illinois was made against the bill amending the naturalization law, which, among other things increased the naturalization fee from $5 to $10. By an emphatic vote the conference report on the measure was rejected and the bill laid upon the table.

A tribute to Lincoln by Mr. Bouter of Illinois closed the day's proceedings.

RURAL GUARDS OF CUBA IN MUTINY

Attempted to Enter Apartments of President Gomez.

Havana, Feb. 12.—Mutiny broke out among a company of the rural guard just as the men were about to embark in launches to be transported across the harbor to Cabanas fortress. When the men learned that they were to be transferred from the rural guard to the permanent army, in accordance with a decree issued by Governor Magoon authorizing the transfer of one battalion, they refused to embark and, led by a subaltern officer, rushed to the palace. They entered the court yard and demanded an immediate audience of President Gomez.

Some attempted to ascend a stairway to the presidential apartments, but the way was barred by the police guard armed with revolvers. The mutineers, being unarmed, thereupon retreated, but they remained in the courtyard, shouting that they refused to submit to the transfer and demanded to be returned to their homes in Matanzas and Santa Clara, whence they had come to participate in the inaugural ceremonies.

For a time there was great excitement around the palace precincts and General Pino Guerra, commander of the permanent army, and General Montague, commander of the rural guard, were summoned. They succeeded eventually in restoring order and in persuading the men to submit. The men were then sent under an armed escort to Cabanas.

CARL LOOSE FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

New York, Feb. 12.—The jury in the case of Carl Loose, on trial for the killing of his sixteen-year-old daughter, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Loose was convicted on testimony given by his two sons, one of them a preacher, and of a daughter, the latter charging her father with a heinous crime.

It was as a consequence of his banishment from home after the discovery of this crime that Loose shot the youngest of his children and wounded his oldest son, Frederick W. Loose. Insanity was the defense set up.

To Save a Man's Life.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 12.—Thirty-two medical students of the University of Louisville volunteered to give bits of their skin to save the life of Luther Clifton, who was burned at East St. Louis about a month ago. Doctors have begun on the work of grafting and the entire medical profession of Louisville is watching the outcome.

Offer Surprised Jeffries.

Fresno, Cal., Feb. 12.—James J. Jeffries when informed of the offer of Billy Delaney to match him and Al Kaufman for a $10,000 side bet, expressed surprise that his former manager should offer to bet against him. "Kaufman could not lick a postage stamp," was his laconic comment.

New Government Already Finds Trouble on Its Hands.

Constantinople, Feb. 12.—The new government seems to be on the edge of a serious crisis as the result of the sudden removal of Osman Nizami Pasha, minister of war, and Arif Pasha, minister of marine, who, without any public explanation, were replaced on Wednesday by Nazim Pasha and Husni Pasha, respectively. Nazim Pasha has been commander of the Second army corps at Adrianople, where he has shown great talent for organization. Husni Pasha is a vice admiral.

It is learned that Kiamil Pasha, the grand vizier, in discharging the ministers, was actuated by the necessity of frustrating a coup d'etat which was being arranged by the Committee of Union and Progress to establish a military dictatorship under Prince Yussuf Izzedin. The affair is the climax to a struggle between the two rival reform parties, the Committee of Union and Progress and the Liberal Union. The committee is strongly opposed to Kiamil Pasha, and is composed largely of young officers, including all the officers of the Macedonian army, which was largely instrumental in the success of the "Young Turkey" revolution.

The crisis was further developed by the resignation of the president of the council, Hassan Fehmy, and the threatened resignation of the ministers of justice, interior and finance.

Violent Storm in Spain.

Madrid, Feb. 12.—A violent storm is raging along the eastern coast of Spain. In Valencia harbor several vessels came into collision and a fishing boat was wrecked, three of the crew perishing. Trees have been uprooted, chimneys blown down and roofs damaged.

Financial Secretary of a Church Committed Suicide.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—A gas-filled room in the rear of the church of which he had been financial secretary; a letter of farewell written on the back of a map of the Holy Land, which hung on the wall—this was the closing scene of the life of Allen Depue, who, despite the spelling of his name, claimed to be a distant relative of Senator Chauncey M. Depue. The facts in the case came out at the inquest. In his somewhat disconnected letter Depue referred to sisters in Boston and Des Moines and a nephew in Denver.

The church of which Depue had been financial secretary for several years is the Roseland Central Presbyterian. Mrs. Depue, the widow, testified that her husband had told her he had been systematically black mailed since his boyhood, but he never told her the details. He refers to it in his letter. Recently the trustees of the church accused the financial secretary of a shortage of several hundred dollars. After insisting on his innocence Depue promised to return the money last Monday night. In this he failed and his body was found by the pastor of the church the following Wednesday just before the evening prayer meeting.

COMMITTS SUICIDE IN JAIL

Crazed Austrian Hangs Himself With Straps.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 12.—Martin Oberman, a crazed Austrian who fatally stabbed one and seriously injured two fellow passengers on the Great Western train near Berwick, Ia., committed suicide in the county jail by hanging himself with the straps with which he was bound. In his ravings he had torn off his straight jacket.

Concerning Hardinge-Von Buelow Conference.

Berlin, Feb. 12.—Intense curiosity is being displayed by the German people concerning Sir Charles Hardinge's conference with Chancellor von Buelow. The authorities, however, maintain the strictest reticence except to state that every subject was touched upon in the policy of both nations interested and that the result of the discussion was most satisfactory to both sides. It is understood that before the departure of King Edward, Sir Charles will have a further conference with the chancellor.

The indisposition of the king, who was suffering from a mild attack of bronchial catarrh, is so slight that he was able to carry out the greater part of the prearranged programme without inconvenience. Accompanied by the queen and the emperor, and empress, his majesty paid a lengthy visit to the Emperor Frederick museum. The royal party afterwards dined with the crown prince and crown princess at their palace, after which they attended a gala performance of "Sardanapalus" at the opera.

County Local Option Repeal Bill Passed by Indiana Assembly.

Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—The Proctor-Tomlinson county local option repeal bill was passed by the Indiana house of representatives by a vote of 52 to 44. The Kleckner bill, substituting township and ward local option for county option and understood to be the Democratic platform measure, failed to pass for lack of a constitutional majority of 51. The vote on this bill was 48 to 47.

The passage of the Proctor-Tomlinson bill followed the hottest debate of the session. It was agreed upon as a compromise measure by the Democratic majority of the house. There were ten Democratic representatives, however, who voted against the bill. Four Republicans voted for it.

Champions of the Proctor-Tomlinson compromise bill express confidence that their bill will pass the senate, which is controlled by Republicans.

The Proctor-Tomlinson bill provides for incorporated town and city ward local option. It allows but one saloon to 500 inhabitants and does away with saloons owned by breweries.

WILL OVERRULE THE MOTION

Court Will Not Grant Mrs. Lemp a Decree as Case Now Stands.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—Before the trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Lillian Handlan Lemp adjourned until Saturday, Mrs. Lemp's attorneys announced they will file a motion Saturday asking that a decree be entered in her favor as it now stands. It will bar out the testimony of William J. Lemp, Jr., and all of his witnesses if granted. Judge Hitchcock told the lawyers he would overrule the motion and would hear the case to the end.

New York, Feb. 12.—In honor of Charles Darwin, the famous English scientist, who was born on the same day as Abraham Lincoln, the scientists of New York assembled in the American Museum of Natural History today.

The programme of the centennial included the presentation of a bust of Darwin to the museum and addresses setting forth the relations of his work to various sciences. The bust was given to the museum by the New York Academy of Sciences, the president of the academy, Charles F. Cox, making the presentation address. Mr. Cox is one of the most eminent authorities in the country on Darwinism. The bust was accepted by Professor Henry F. Osborn, president of the museum. Addresses were also made by Professor John J. Stevenson, Professor N. L. Brooks and Professor H. E. Bumpus. The celebration was directed by Professor E. O. Hovey, the famous geologist. In connection with today's programme the museum opened to the public an exhibition of articles relating to the life and works of Darwin.

Unsettled, Stormy Weather Has Accentuated Quiet Now Prevailing.

New York, Feb. 12.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says unsettled stormy weather has accentuated the quiet prevailing in general trade and the situation as a whole is rather irregular. The first of the spring season's buyers' excursions are, however, attracting merchants to the leading markets East and West and while conservatism characterizes dealing the feeling is still one of optimism as to the future. In the industries operations as a whole are still below the normal. Best reports come from the textile trades, particularly cotton and woolen dress goods lines. Some light cottons are sold ahead to October. The metal and coal trades are rather conspicuous for the dullness of the demand and the continuance in the former industry of output at a reduced rate. Reports as to collections reflect the irregularity due to weather or the reduced purchasing power of the country and are still only about fair.

Big Concern Burned Out.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 12.—Fire destroyed the warehouse and office buildings and the entire contents of the Parkhurst-Davis Mercantile company, the largest wholesale grocery firm in Topeka. A rough estimate of the total loss is $250,000. The fire started probably from chemicals. John E. Munson, night watchman, was killed when a portion of the wall fell.

Dorando Defeats Smallwood.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—Dorando Pietri, the Italian Marathon runner, defeated Percy Smallwood in a twelve mile race at the Third regiment armory. The Italian led from the start. Smallwood quit in the eleventh mile, saying his leg had failed him. At that time Dorando was leading by four laps. The winner's time for the twelve miles was 1:19:16 1/2.

The Lady Was Not the Ghost.

An Irish family once had a ghost so troublesome that they sent for detectives. One of these men late at night fell asleep in his chair. The lady of the house chanced to come into the room and could not resist the temptation to groan and rattle her keys. She had never played ghost before. It was momentary indiscretion. But the policeman did not and could hardly be expected to believe this. He said it was hardly worth while to bring him from Dublin, and he withdrew in dudgeon. Yet the lady was not really the ghost. He was sulking in retirement; hence doubt has been cast on the ghosts of haunted houses even among reflecting minds.—London News.

"And you have made Jim Jackson a deacon in your church?"

"He's a deacon dat don't handle no money, sah."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.
